

CSG 2005 Conference

July 20-24

Pre-conference MOL Workshop

July 17-20

Crieff Hills Retreat and Conference Centre
near Guelph, Ontario

Location

Our 2005 conference site is the Crieff Hills Retreat and Conference Centre, located on 250 acres of woodland and rolling fields about 15 minutes drive south of Guelph, Ontario and 39 miles west of Toronto's Pearson International Airport.

Conference meetings will be held in the Conference Hall. We will follow our traditional format of meeting from 8:30 to noon, afternoons free for optional activities and meeting again from 7:30 to 10:30.

Bill Powers will be conducting a pre-conference MOL (Method Of Levels) Workshop beginning Sunday evening, July 17th after dinner and ending with lunch on Wednesday, July 20th. Participants will learn how to conduct the MOL sessions. The CSG Conference will begin with dinner on Wednesday, July 20th and end with breakfast on Sunday, July 24th.

Accommodations

Two lodges have been reserved for both the CSG Conference and the pre-conference MOL Workshop. St. Luke's Lodge features 12 bedrooms that can accommodate single or double occupancy. Of these, the middle two rooms on each level (six rooms total) also contain a roll-away bed to accommodate a third person.

St. Mark's Lodge features six bedrooms for single or double occupancy. A seventh, larger bedroom can hold up to four persons. Linen is provided in both lodges. All meals will be provided on-site and served at the dining hall.

Rooms should be available after 4:00 pm on the first day of the CSG conference or MOL workshop. Attendees should report to Maclean Hall and Office (the old schoolhouse) to obtain their rooms and updated conference information. See <http://www.crieffhills.com> for additional information about the site.
